

To Our Customers:

The purpose of this letter is to provide background information on Dyne Systems, Inc., Midwest Dynamometer, LLC and Dynamatic Dynamometer, LLC.

On 4/01/02 the assets to Midwest™ Dynamometer were bought by Jonen Enterprises LLC creating Midwest Dynamometer LLC.

On 03/17/02 the assets to Dynamatic™ Dynamometer and Engineering were bought by Jonen Enterprises LLC creating Dynamatic Dynamometer & Engineering LLC.

On 5/07/07 Midwest Dynamometer LLC; Dynamatic Dynamometer & Engineering LLC; and Dyne Systems LLC were sold to GMH Group, Inc. creating Dyne Systems, Inc.

Dyne Systems, Inc. is the sole owner of all original OEM drawings, designs and other intellectual property for all Midwest™ (see complete list of models in Appendix 1) and Dynamatic™ (see a complete list of models in Appendix 2) parts and complete dynamometers. No other manufacturer or repair shop has Midwest's or Dynamatic's original intellectual property, regardless of claims.

Our remanufacturing capabilities/expertise applies to all models and our work is done with the same exclusivity and original, demanding standards. Dyne System, Inc. manufactures spare parts as well as specializes in repairing and remanufacturing Midwest™ and Dynamatic™ brands, with the capability of restoring model years as far back as the 1920's to today's improved OEM specifications. All parts are either restored to original specifications or completely replaced.

Dyne Systems, Inc. maintains an extensive inventory of parts and dynamometers.

Please contact me directly should you have any questions.

Sincerely,

Alan T. Brown
CEO
